(2024 Review)

(Measurement Report)

Name of Public Authority: Town of Hempstead Industrial Development Agency

Mission Statement:

Pursuant to the General Municipal Law of the State of New York the Town of Hempstead Industrial Development Agency (“Agency” or “IDA”) was established under the laws of New York State to promote economic development and employment and housing opportunities within the Town of Hempstead.

The Agency is a public benefit corporation created by the State of New York and is a quasi-governmental authority that functions in the public interest. The seven-member board over its 30 years of existence and through its enacted policies and procedures has operated with transparency and openness. The Agency has, and will, continue to advance its statutory mandate to encourage economic growth and business activity, while preserving the best interests of the Town of Hempstead and its residents.

This outreach is achieved through the Agency’s online site and involvement by staff and board members with the business community at seminars and events.

The IDA believes that the most effective means to achieve its goals and reach its public purpose is to publicize the incentives that the agency provides. The key incentives include property tax relief, exemption from sales taxes and waivers of the mortgage recording tax.

Board members are actively involved in the development of the Agency’s mission and in the ongoing evaluation of how well the agency is meeting its goals. During the year, the staff and board members discuss the contacts and proposed developments that have come to the IDA as well as the status of projects and the nature of what brought them to us. Discussions further involve how well we are meeting the needs of those who contact the Agency and the key role that our incentives play in this regard.
